Faculty Affairs

INTERNATIONALIZATION GRANT

Call for Proposals
16 May 2022

OVERVIEW

The Office of Faculty Affairs works to advance the University's internationalization goals and support efforts to expand global engagement in the colleges and divisions. As such, OFA offers internationalization grants of up to $5,000 for projects which advance the university's internationalization agenda, including, but not limited to:

- Integrating global learning into the curriculum and co-curriculum
- Fostering a vibrant and inclusive campus culture for domestic and international students, staff, and faculty
- Preparing graduates to work effectively in a diverse society and as global citizens
- International student, faculty, and staff retention
- Fostering strategic international partnerships or participation in global consortia which amplify OSU's global profile and impact

This is a pilot program for AY2022-23 which will be assessed for impact in spring 2023. If the program is approved to continue, it will become a matching program with home units.

This grant is funded by the INTO OSU Joint Venture Internationalization Fund.

This information is also available on the Global Engagement website.

ELIGIBILITY

All OSU professional and academic faculty and INTO OSU employees are eligible to apply. Student employees are not eligible.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Applications must include the following:

- Description of project, including title, project leads, outcomes/goals, how they will be accomplished, timeline, and assessment plan (high-level)
- How this proposal advances the university's or your unit's internationalization goals. Where possible, please cite OSU SP4, the Internationalization and Global Engagement Strategy, or your unit's strategic plan.
- Detailed budget showing requested amount and costs with justification. Note that a maximum of $5,000 may be requested from OFA but supplemental funding can be requested (with advance approval) from the home unit.
- Letter of support from unit leadership citing strategic implications of the proposed work. If supplemental funding is being requested from unit, include approval for that amount in the letter.

Proposals are screened by committee with recommendations to the Vice Provost of Faculty Affairs for final approval.

Applications for spring/summer 2022 will be accepted on a rolling basis. For academic year 2022-23 there will be a quarterly application cycle. The program may be paused once the annual maximum is met.

OBLIGATIONS

Funding must be utilized within 12 months of receipt and cannot be carried over.

Successful recipients are expected to provide a brief summary (up to 4 pages) of project outcomes and any proposed next steps within one month of completion.

We ask that recipients thank or give credit to the Internationalization Grant when the opportunity presents itself.

Recipient bios and project summaries will be featured on the OFA website.
